CONVERSATION

Ruth and Boaz

RUTH 1-4

There was a woman named Naomi. Her husband had died. She had two sons. Her sons got married. One man married a woman named Orpah. The other married a woman named Ruth. Later, both of Naomi's sons died, and all three women were left without their husbands.

Orpah decided to return to her family. Ruth decided to stay with Naomi and go with her to Bethlehem, the town Naomi was from. Ruth told Naomi, "Your people will be my people, and your God will be my God."

So Ruth and Naomi traveled back to Bethlehem.

In Bethlehem, people were preparing for a barley harvest and many people were working in the fields.

A man named Boaz, who was one of Naomi's family members, owned a field and allowed Ruth to collect leftover grain for herself and Naomi.

Boaz was very kind and generous to Ruth. He cared for Ruth and Naomi. After some time, Ruth and Boaz were married and became a family. Later, Ruth and Boaz had a baby boy and named him Obed.

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

Parents, today your child heard that family members can love and help one another. Ruth showed love for Naomi by gathering grain for food during a time of need.

LIVE IT OUT

After reviewing the Bible story, explain to your child that God wants family members to love and help one another. Help your child think of ways she can be helpful in your family.

LEVEL OF BIBLICAL LEARNING

God wants families to show love, respect, and kindness to one another.
