CONVERSATION

Mary, Martha, and Lazarus

JOHN 11:1-44

A man named Lazarus was very sick. His sisters, Mary and Martha, sent a message to Jesus, who was a close family friend.

When Jesus found out that Lazarus was sick, He made plans to go and see His friends and care for them. Jesus told His disciples that Lazarus would not end up dying from his sickness and that God would be glorified. When Jesus and the disciples arrived, Lazarus had been dead and in a tomb (place to bury people who have died) for four days.

Martha went to Jesus and asked why He had not come sooner. Jesus explained that her brother would live again. She did not understand, but she believed that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God. Martha sent for Mary, who rushed to see Jesus. The people who were with Mary followed her. They were all weeping and very sad that Lazarus had died. Even Jesus wept.

Jesus asked them to take Him to Lazarus' tomb and open it. Mary and Martha were confused. "What can you do now that he has died?" they asked. Jesus told them to believe so they removed the stone.

When the tomb was opened, Jesus shouted, "Lazarus, come out!" And Lazarus came out of the tomb. He was alive again.
