Saul Encountered Jesus

ACTS 9:1-25

Saul was going to arrest (take as prisoners) the people who believed in Jesus. A bright light shone down on Saul, and he fell to the ground. Saul heard a voice. "Saul, why are you punishing Me?" the voice said.

"Who are You?" Saul asked. "I am Jesus," the voice said. "Go into the city and wait. You will be told what to do." Saul could not see, so men led him to Damascus. Saul waited in a house for three days.

Jesus spoke to a man named Ananias. "Go to a house where a man is waiting and praying." Ananias knew about Saul and did not want to go. Jesus said that He had chosen Saul to tell people everywhere about Him.

Ananias obeyed God and went to Saul. He touched Saul and something like scales fell from his eyes. Saul could see again!

Saul began to preach in Damascus. "Jesus is God's Son," Saul told everyone. People were surprised that Saul had changed. Some Jews wanted to kill Saul. Saul's friends put him in a large basket and lowered him outside the city through an opening in the wall.

THE BIBLE MEETS LIFE

In today's Bible story your child learned that people can do God's work. Even Saul, who once hurt Christians, became a worker for God.

LIVE IT OUT

Briefly review the Bible story with your child. Comment that Saul began to do God's work after he met Jesus. Give your child a paper with the Weekly Bible Verse printed on it. Allow her to decorate it with markers, crayons, and stickers.
