The Bible Tells Us So

On the road to Emmaus, Jesus reminded the men that the prophets had written about Jesus' suffering, death, and resurrection. First read the Old Testament verse to learn some of the things the prophets wrote. Then read the New Testament verse and write the prophecy Jesus fulfilled.

During the days of Jesus, it was not uncommon for people to walk up to 20 miles a day!

CONVERSATION

Jesus Taught Two Disciples

LUKE 24:13-35

Two of Jesus' disciples were on their way to a village called Emmaus. They were talking about everything that had happened in Jerusalem when Jesus had been crucified. As they were talking, Jesus Himself began to walk with them. At this time, the men did not recognize Him. Jesus asked the men what they were talking about.

"Haven't you heard what has happened these last few days?" one of the men asked Jesus.

Jesus replied, "What things?"

So, the two men shared all that had happened.

They explained that Jesus, a Prophet who spoke many things about God, had been handed over by their chief priests to be crucified. The men had hoped that Jesus was the One who was sent to save Israel. Then the men shared that this was not the end of the story. They explained how three days after Jesus had died, women from their group arrived early at the tomb where Jesus had been buried, but Jesus' body was not there. Instead, the women saw angels who told them Jesus was alive!

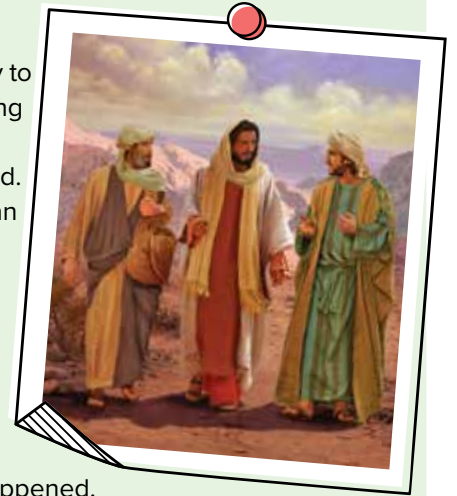

Jesus listened intently to the disciples' story, and then He said, "Didn't the Scriptures say that the Messiah would have to suffer before entering into His glory?" Then Jesus taught the men everything in the Scriptures that was written about Him.

When they came near the village, the men invited Jesus to stay with them for the night. As Jesus sat at a table with them, He took bread, blessed it, and gave it to the men. When they saw this, the disciples immediately realized that the man was Jesus. At that moment, Jesus disappeared from their sight. The two disciples were amazed. They talked about how their hearts felt like they were on fire when Jesus explained the Scriptures to them.

That very hour, the men got up and returned to Jerusalem. They found Jesus' eleven disciples and shared all that had happened on the road with Jesus. The men exclaimed, "The Lord has certainly been raised from the dead, and He appeared to us this day!"
