Paul Listened to God

ACTS 15:36–16:12

Paul and Barnabas decided to visit the towns where they had told about Jesus. Barnabas wanted to bring along another disciple named Mark, but Paul did not want Mark to join them. Barnabas and Mark went a different way. Paul chose Silas to travel with him. They traveled to the churches that Paul had started. They traveled through Syria and Cilicia, Derbe, and Lystra.

In Lystra, Paul met a young man named Timothy. The people at Lystra spoke highly of him. Paul asked Timothy to join him and Silas. They talked with the churches. They told more people about Jesus.

God told Paul not to go to Asia. They tried to go another way but again God said no. Paul listened to God. During the night, Paul had a dream. A man from Macedonia stood over him saying, “Come to Macedonia. We need help!” Paul, Silas, and Timothy left immediately. They knew God wanted them to tell the good news about Jesus with the people in Macedonia.
