A Psalm About God's Word

PSALM 119

Psalm 119 is the longest chapter in the Bible. This chapter tells us that God's Word brings happiness to anyone who follows it. People who love God's instruction are peaceful. Nothing makes them stumble.

The writer says that God's Word is a treasure and a joy. The words are more important than pure gold or silver, and they are sweeter than honey. We can find joy in God's promises, like someone who finds a treasure. We can love and respect His Word.

God's Word can keep us from sinning and will teach us what we need to know. God always does and says what is right and good. We can pray and ask God to use His Word to help us know Him more. We can praise God for His commands and honor Him by obeying them.

God's Word helps us when we are sad, or alone, or afraid. Others may lie about us and mistreat us, but we can choose to obey God's Word even when it is hard. God's Word lights our paths. It shows us the way to go and what to do.

The writer of the psalm chose to obey and trust God's Word, and we can do that, too. We can hope and depend on His Word and never forget it. We can think about it all night and obey it forever. We can sing about God's promises and praise Him.

God's Word has always been true, is true today, and will be true forever. We can remember what God says and ask Him to help us live in ways that honor Him.
